MINE EYES HAVE SEEN THE GLORY:
ANGLICAN VISIONS OF
APOCALYPSE AND OF HOPE

*Apocalypse ... Total Devastation ... Revelation
... The Day of Judgment ... The End of Time ...
Dawn of a New Day*

The approach of a new century - indeed, a new Millennium - causes our thoughts to focus again on the questions: "What will the end of time be like? How will God's salvation be revealed?"

This conference will explore the meaning of apocalypse -- prophetic revelation -- in the lives of specific Episcopal individuals and communities. The presenters will examine ways in which Christian hope ... the belief in God's promise of salvation ... energized and sustained people caught in adversity.

NEHA brings to the conference an opportunity for all participants to expand their skills in the preservation of the current millennium's records, documents and oral histories so that archivists and historians of the New Millennium will have a foundation upon which to build, research and go forward.
